Loree Jon ~~Ogonowski~~ Jones

This young star's future is as bright as her smile...

By the time this column reaches you, the superstar woman player previously known to you as Loree Jon Ogonowski will now be officially named Loree Jon Jones. Loree Jon and Sammy Jones of Southfield, Michigan will tie the knot on November 24, 1985. Congratulations to two beautiful people that will make one beautiful married couple.

Loree Jon just turned 20 years old on November 6th and has already accomplished what some players take a life time to - but, her many National and World titles did actually take a good part of her lifetime to date inasmuch as Loree Jon started playing at the age of "4". Her most recent event was the U.S. Open in Norfolk, Virginia at which she placed in the very respectable 3rd finishing spot.

A strong advocate for promoting the sport, Loree Jon has made several television appearances including ESPN, Good Morning America, Good Morning New York, Big Blue Marble and That's Incredible. In addition, Ms. Jones is the Secretary for the Women's Professional Billiard Association, a member of their Rules Committee and Chairman of the Dress Code Committee.

Loree Jon Ogonowski-Jones is always full of fresh ideas and opinions to support the growth of the game and has provided the women professional players with an excellent role model for finesse and showmanship at the table.

As a player representative for Meucci Originals (the Olive Branch, Mississippi based cuemaker), Loree plays with a 19 ounce cue but admits she is currently looking for something a little lighter. Her playing arena preference is a Gandy table.

This young star's future is as bright as her smile and she works hard to make her talents and the talents of other professional players publicly recognized. ▲
